SECTION I

1. General access regulations to the Historical Complex

- 1.1 With the exception of the Church of Santa Maria Annunciata in Camposanto, where only participation in religious services is allowed, access to the Historical Complex will be allowed only and exclusively to the purchaser of a Ticket (hereinafter, for the sake of brevity, individually the “Customer” or jointly the “Customers”) upon presentation of the Ticket itself, which must be valid, kept for the entire duration of the visit, and stamped on exit, where applicable.
- 1.2 In order to know the opening hours, possible changes in dates, times, and other elements relating to the opening and/or closing of the Historical Complex, the Customer can access the Website or refer themselves to Duomo InfoPoint (desk located in Piazza Duomo 14/A, 20122 Milan, telephone +39 02-72023375, email info@duomomilano.it). Events, such as, by way of example and not limited to, adverse weather conditions, reasons of public safety and/or order, and/or other organisational or technical factors not attributable to VFD, could in fact force the latter to change, at its sole discretion, the opening and/or closing times, methods of access (including the ascent to and descent from the Milan Duomo Rooftops), the tour itinerary, the areas that can be visited, the time spent, or the events scheduled at the Historical Complex. Any liability of VFD is excluded, for any reason whatsoever, in the presence of one of these situations, and any exception to this is now withdrawn by the Customer.
- 1.3 VFD defines, at its sole discretion, based on the size and shape of the Historical Complex’s areas, as well as in compliance with current legislation, the maximum volume of Customers who can be admitted to each of the areas forming part of the Historical Complex, any exception to this is now withdrawn by the Customer.
- 1.4 With specific reference to visits to the Milan Duomo Rooftops and the Quarry, in case of severe bad weather and/or in any case of adverse weather conditions, VFD, at its sole discretion, may suspend any activity also for safety reasons. Any liability of VFD is excluded, for any reason whatsoever, in the presence of one of these situations, and any exception to this is now withdrawn by the Customer.
